

Recommended Books for Nursery and Reception

A lovely story about a ladybird who overhears a secret plan to steal the prize cow. Through team work and communication the animals work together to foil the burglars and save the cow

A boy learns from observing worms in the garden alongside his grandmother that they are not so yucky after all. He finds out that their eating and excretion habits are helpful in recycling material which is good for the soil and helps plants grow. Gran dispels the myth that cutting worms in half doesn't hurt them.

A mouse peers out of her hole one day and spies a huge apple. The search is on to find a hole which can accommodate both her and this delicious food.

A friendly spider is keen to ingratiate herself as a potential pet for a family she has selected. She demonstrates her superior qualities by showing how she can dance, keep clean and find her own food, but the family's response is a refrain of "Aaaarrgghh, Spider!" "Out you go!"

Anna Hibiscus is a small girl of dual heritage with a happy heart living with a large and loving family in Africa. She asks each member of her extended family what she should do because she feels so happy and she weaves their various responses into a song.

Do you ever wonder if somewhere, not too far away, there might be monsters? What if this monster wanted to eat you and was making his way from his home in the hills towards you in your cosy home?

Billy wants a bucket for his birthday. At first, his parents try and persuade him to have a more conventional present but eventually they take him to Buckets "R" Us to select his gift from a huge array. Once he fills his bucket with water, Billy claims he can see all the wonders of the ocean deeps and his parents humour him.

A night-time adventure as a gang of biscuit bears create a wild circus in the kitchen.

